ABATE of Washington, Lewis County Chapter is a responsible group of citizens and motorcycle enthusiasts dedicated to the education of all motorists and the safety and empowerment of motorcyclists on the roadways.

ABATE is dedicated to the freedom of the road.

ABATE is motorcycle enthusiasts from all walks of life that have come together to promote motorcycle safety, education and public awareness.

ABATE understands that it is easier to defeat a bad bill before it becomes a law than to repeal a bad law that has already passed.

ABATE is a statewide organization with local chapters. Each chapter conducts business according to its own needs, under guidelines established by the state board of directors. The state board is comprised of one elected representative from each chapter and state officers who are elected by the general membership. The state board meets quarterly. State board and chapter meetings are open to the general membership and the public. You may be an independent member if you do not desire chapter affiliation.

ABATE is a Washington non-profit corporation. Members are active in their communities donating time and materials to many charitable causes and civic activities.

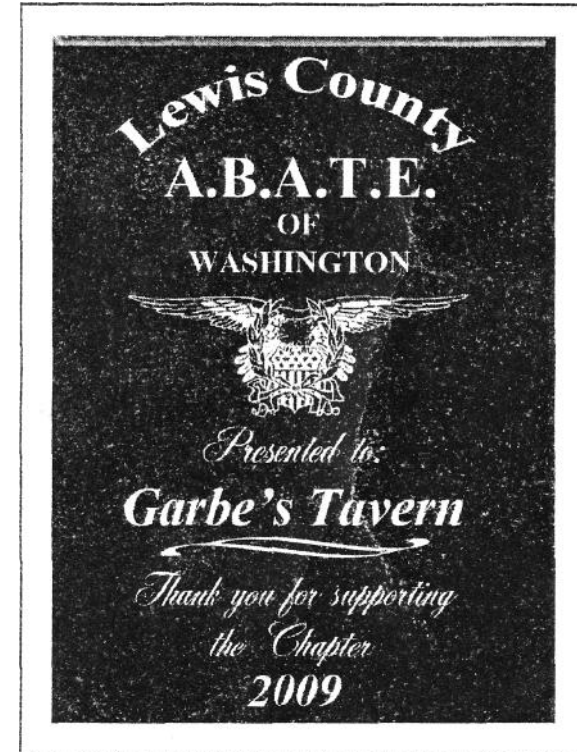

ABATE does not discriminate. Whoever you are, whatever you ride, whether you hold membership in other clubs or organizations, your membership is welcome and appreciated.

We support our local community.
We work on the following projects during the year:

- Member generated annual food drive. We donate two tons of food to the Lewis County Food Bank Coalition.
- During the Christmas holiday. We have a toy drive and participate in the Lighted Tractor Parade in downtown Centralia.
- Give out scholarships to 8 High Schools in Lewis County. (Elk Country Chapter takes care of the 3 east end High Schools.)
- Develop ties with other organizations to promote community activities
